Application Procedure:

1. Please submit a paper proposal:
  - TITLE of the paper in TNR 12 point bold with capital letters on the center;
  - Author's name in TNR 10 point, on the right, double-space under the title. The first name should use, bold, and the family name, Times New Roman 10, capital letters and bold. The symbol * has to be written next to the family name as a footnote and this has to include information or workplace (for each author separately, if it is the case).
  - Content/body text (not exceeding 200 words) in one paragraph only in TNR 9 point, italics, justify, 2 lines under the author's name. Objectives of papers, methodology, main results and principal conclusions should be clearly stated.
  - Keywords, 4-6 words that comprise the essence of the article have to be mentioned. They should be listed according to their importance, in English, at 2 lines under the abstract, with Times New Roman 9, italics, justify.
  - Each author has to mention, after the key words, the paper's code according to JEL classification (namely the category/ code K for law and economics literature). Please consult JEL Classification to identify the article's category.
  - No abbreviations and references.
2. Please also provide any information about the presentation given and the necessary devices for presentation, publications, and any other relevant information about your research.
3. In addition to paper proposals, proposals for panels will also be considered. A panel should address a topical issue related to the theme and consists of 5 speakers if possible from different institutions.
4. For publication the full paper should be written in English using Microsoft Word. The text should be in TNR font size 10, justify and single line spacing. The footnotes should use Times New Roman 8.

If the paper is divided in chapters and paragraphs, the chapter's title will be written Times New Roman 10, left, caps lock, bold, double line spacing; the paragraph's title will be written, Times New Roman 10, left, normal, bold, double line spacing.

Both in the body of the text and in the footnotes the following short forms are used: art. (= article); para. (= paragraph); p./pp (= page or pages); t. (= tome); vol. (= volume); G. O. (= Government Ordinance); G. D. (= Government Decision). REFERENCES (books and specialized journals) must be introduced using "Harvard Style". Please consult: http://www.library.uq.edu.au/training/citation/harvard\_6.pdf. For another quoted works (jurisprudence, legislation, websites) please use only footnotes. The document's name has to be mentioned, its number, the date of ruling/ issuing, the issuing authority (court), and the publication where it is included (The Official Gazette, case law reports etc.). Footnotes will continue on the following pages and won't start with no.1 on each page.

With the exception of the title, the text and the footnotes of the material have to use normal character format, and, when required, only italics.

The materials (articles, researches) submitted for publication cannot exceed 15 standard pages.

Outcomes:

We would like to share and discuss our findings with academics and practitioners from Romania, Italy and other countries that have the same concerns. Analytical papers capable of offering examples of best practices within the announced fields of interest are highly important. Practitioners' submissions are not supposed to be research papers but rather short case studies on good or bad practices.

The papers presented within the conference will be published in the International Law Review. The review is included in the international databases: SSRN, EBSCO, ProQuest and VLEX.

Papers submitted after the deadline cannot be published.

Submission procedure:

For participation please submit your

- Registration form and paper proposal until 3rd of October, 2018;
- Final paper until 28th of December, 2018.

Submit your paper to: law.justice.conference@gmail.com

For registration as participant: please send the Registration form (from the conference's webpage).
