OUR MISSION

A comprehensive view of the academic community, specialists from practice and civil servants from the pan-European perspective to compare the challenges in migration and migration policy in the European Union. It will provide a problem oriented analysis and discussion of individual themes and problems within the given theme which – as we believe – will play an important role in the forming and life of European society in the future.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE

academic community, researchers, scholars and specialists in migration, state representatives, public actors, media

CONFERENCE TOPICS

- Current challenges in migration policy
- Migration and the EU member states
- Migration: perspectives and future scenarios

Proposed topics are designed to be inclusive rather than exclusive enabling organizers to combine relevant papers in a multi-disciplinary approach to fit all papers in the proposed panels.

Proposals for presentations should consist of brief biographical note and short (150 words) abstract.

Participants are required to register for the conference: Application form

The conference will be held at the Faculty of Social Sciences, UCM in Trnava, Slovakia on April 26-27 2018.

For general inquiries related to paper proposals as well as organizational matters and other correspondence, please, contact: jaroslav.mihalik@ucm.sk

The organizers reserve the right to change the conference schedule due to the number of participants and panel optimization.

Selected high quality papers will be published as chapters in edited and peer-reviewed book/monograph dedicated to the conference topic, published online and in hard copy and distributed to respective institutions at national as well as international level.
