

EVROPAEVM POLICY SEMINAR POLICY-MAKING INSIDE EUROPE ?

19-21 March, 2018, Brussels

The EUROPAEVM is pleased to invite applications for our policy making workshop in Brussels. A special three-day programme includes visits to the European Parliament, the Portuguese Permanent Representation as well as talks, discussions, and interviews with those at the sharp end of policy and decision-making in Brussels. It is being organised with our colleagues from the Institute of Political Science in Lisbon and will focus on how key areas of European policy are made. This year we will our core themes include: Energy policy; the future of the Euro; EU-Russian relations; Eastern Europe; regulation of the digital economy; and Migration. There will also be chances for more detailed discussion in working groups. The accent is on discussion and understanding.

The event will start on the morning of Monday 19 March and will end at lunchtime on Wednesday 21 March

Successful applicants will receive free accommodation and reimbursements for reasonable travel expenses. Application deadline 18 February: How to apply: <https://europaeum.org/opportunities-2/apply-for-a-europaeum-event/>

This programme is made possible thanks to the generous support from the European Parliament, Federation for European Progressive Studies, the Institute of Politics, Catholic University of Portugal, and the EUROPAEVM association of universities.
